My journey becoming a model

I started modelling about 4 years ago when I had an audition for a charity called chabs.when I arrived I was asked to be body painted as one of the model had not turned up I said yes immediately .It took 6 hours to be painted and I loved every minute .
Once painted I had to walk on a catwalk in front of lot people but I felt dressed

I have also been a model on tv for Lisa snowden fashion slot and have also been model for another tv channel tic modelling
For bra spans designed for supporting the body.

I am very comfortable Infront of camera

My next big challenge is that I entered a pageant for miss equisite England in September

I love fashion my style is unique
